
Choosing CityIQ as Your Resourcing Partner

Our clients choose CityIQ as their Resourcing partner because:

- We are committed to building long term business relationships with our clients; always choosing long-term reputation over the pursuit of short-term gain
- We specialise in the Securities industry and have a thorough understanding of our sector and the companies that make it work
- We are small enough to care about individual clients; offering a personalised service that is relationship, not numbers, driven
- We are sufficiently well known in the market to attract candidates with the skills and experience our clients need
- We have a rigorous interview process, and will only promote candidates who we know to have the skills and experience that match our clients requirements
- We understand the market and can advise on job specifications, rates and salaries, and the advantages of choosing either a contract or permanent placement; all to ensure that our clients get the right candidate
- Consulting clients of CityIQ Ltd benefit from an advantageous fee structure when using CityIQ's bespoke resource planning capability or full-service permanent recruitment offering.
